

PROMOTION & PUBLICITY

Promotion & Publicity Checklist

Oakland Convention Center has compiled the following promotion and publicity checklist that will assist you in hosting a successful event.

- Review previous years' promotional budgets
- Determine objectives and scope of event
- Determine audience(s), i.e., membership, exhibitors, industry, trade, general public, etc.
- Develop a theme with corresponding graphics
- Considerations should include purposes of individual pieces, i.e., who will receive them, tone to be conveyed, how they will be produced, how many colors will be needed, what layout is required and what is the budget
- Develop a schedule for the campaign
- Set promotional budget based on characteristics of membership, features of the venue, time of year, strength of program and costs of attendance
- Develop promotional materials according to tested criteria, e.g., short and forceful sentences, convincing explanation of benefits to attendees, clear emphasis on important elements of meeting and easy means of registering
- Plan for all campaign items to carry theme forward, taking into account costs of special effects like embossing or die-cutting; quality, grade, weight and finish of paper; number of ink colors used; production time and quantity required for:
 - Pre-meeting letters and announcements
 - Preliminary programs
 - Registration and housing forms
 - Promotional pieces for both exhibitors and attendees
 - Invitations
 - Follow-up mailings
 - Final agendas/program books
 - Badge inserts
 - Tickets
 - On-site registration materials
 - Signage
 - Newsletters
 - Lists of registered attendees
- Solicit a minimum of three competitive bids for all printing, checking samples of paper stock, samples of work for other meetings, references and explanation of other services each firm can provide
- Select printer(s), taking into account whether need is for "quick" or commercial quality, demonstrated ability of a single printer to handle all needs, availability of necessary equipment for jobs and ability to meet deadlines.
- Agree with printer on schedule into which extra time is built and monitor deadlines for rough layout, submission of copy, preliminary approval, completed layout, final approval of blueline and delivery of job
- Release promotional pieces, press releases and related materials in accordance with event schedule, with news releases preceding membership promotional mailings
- Target local, national and international media as appropriate by type, e.g., trade papers, newspapers, general interest periodicals and radio and TV ads that are tailored to your desired demographic

- Control promotional costs through the following measures:
 - Obtain firm written bids for services
 - Provide clean, competently proofread copy to printers
 - Use standard paper sizes when possible
 - Use same paper stock for many pieces
 - Piggyback print items using same color
 - Use standard PMS ink colors
 - Reuse graphics
 - Coordinate printing times
 - Set and enforce firm policy on overtime
 - Minimize number of copy changes
